NEWS RELEASE

The Marengo Police Department through information received from the McHenry County Sheriff's Police and a thorough investigation and assistance from the McHenry County States Attorney's Office, has charged two individuals with the recent string of motor vehicle burglaries over the May 2nd – 3rd weekend.

Mr. Bradley J. Lampkin (currently in the McHenry County Jail) last known address of 935 Briden Drive in Marengo was charged as follows:

- 7 counts of Burglary to Motor Vehicle
- 6 Counts of Theft (Under $500.00)
- 1 Count of Theft (Over $500.00)

Another juvenile will be petitioned into juvenile court for the following:

- 2 Petitions for Theft / Possession of Stolen Property

Although much of the non-evidentiary property recovered has been returned to the proper owners, MPD still has some items that were not identified by the victims as having ownership over them. Please contact the Marengo Police Department at 815-568-7231 if you need further information on items you may be missing.
